

Year recap/Christmas/Sluisbuurt Pubquiz

Most people will look back at 2020 for its terrible events: World leaders almost causing World War 3, COVID-19 pandemic, Australian bushfires and so on. Luckily, we are in the last month of this crazy year, and we have a lot of nice things to celebrate during this month.

This quiz will prepare you on every trivia question you will receive during Christmas, and it will help you brighten up your memory, so you can talk about this crazy year during your forced social activities. (like this one). And of course, some questions about our CGI community and the future Sluisbuurt, so that we can do this for our community part of our personal roadmap. There will be a lot of guessing during this quiz, but that will trigger your creativity, I guess... we are all creative students after all.

Everybody has got a piece of paper on which they can write down their answers. Do not cheat, otherwise you won't receive your meals. There will be a brake after every 8 questions, so hide your answers during those brakes. The winner will receive an amazing prize, and eternal fame.

To start off with an icebreaker quite literally:

1

How many acres of trees were burned down in Australia during the 'black summer' 1 footballfield = 1.8 acres.

D: 46 million

The only reason why we can sit here is because of some strict rules
So, of course there is a question about the pandemic:

And now, some questions about de Sluisbuurt:

We all know that there will be a Inholland in de Sluisbuurt.

15

The question is: when did the municipality, Inholland and DUWO sign the agreement?

A: 27 january 2020

The final question before we can eat again

De Sluisbuurt will be a place where people can cycle without having to worry about crashing into cars. About time to do something about it, because The Netherlands own the second place for cyclist deaths in Europe.

16

How many bikes are there in Amsterdam?

D: 880.000

Time to eat again, everyone stay seated, we will bring the food to your table.

Time for some 2020 flashbacks again:

You can't talk about 2020 without mentioning Donald Trump. He is everywhere: in the white house, on the news, on the golf court, but mainly on Twitter.

17

How many tweets did Trump post in 2020 so far?

C: 5.146

Great news to end the 2020 questions with: we can probably start vaccination in January. Well, is it great news? A lot of people don't want to take the vaccine.

18

22

What kind of people used to live on Zeeburgereiland?

B: Hippies who got sent away from the Vondelpark could sleep in a camping on zeeburgereiland. So it was kind of a ditch place for troublemakers.

2020 wasn't the best year we all experienced, but it could always be worst. This is the final question, I hope it makes you feel a bit better about 2020.

23

What was the worst year to be alive?

D: 536

Not 1349, when the black death wiped out half of Europe. Not 1918, when the flu killed 50 million young adults. But the year 536. It was completely dark for 18 months, causing crops to fail and people going mad. So, 2020 isn't that bad.
